Overview

This story is about the fox Chuleta, who narrates his journey to find the Valley of Vegetarians. Chuleta's quest is not just about physical effort but also involves deep thought and contemplation.

He explores various ideas and alternatives, none of which initially satisfy him, until he finally devises the perfect plan. The story ends with Chuleta making his move towards the valley, but the conclusion is left undisclosed. The book is visually engaging, with crayon illustrations offering different perspectives and demonstrating the power of color. It is a story that resonates with many, taking readers to a place they often wish to be.
