

Mamá Adivina

Prepared by: Curio Team

SPROUTS

Overview

Follow-up activities

Glossary

1. adivina [ah-dee-VEE-nah]: fortune-teller
2. llevar [yeh-VAHR]: to carry, to take
3. buscar [boo-SKAHR]: to look for, to search
4. el lavadero [lah-vah-DEH-ro]: the laundry room
5. desaparecer [deh-sah-pah-reh-SER]: to disappear
6. el suéter de lana [SWAY-tehr deh LAH-nah]: the wool sweater
7. la canica [kah-NEE-kah]: the marble (toy)
8. el lado [el LAH-doh]: the side
9. la azucarera [lah ah-thoo-kah-REH-rah]: the sugar bowl
10. huracán [oo-rah-KAHN]: the hurricane
11. la gaveta [gah-VEH-tah]: the drawer
12. los bolsillos [bohl-SEE-yos]: the pockets
13. la llaves [YAH-ves]: the keys
14. la cerradura [seh-rah-DOO-rah]: the door lock

Discover the heartwarming journey in "Mamá Adivina," a delightful Spanish children's book that celebrates the extraordinary bond between a mother and her son. Witness the mother's magical knack for locating her son's cherished toys amidst the chaos of a progressively messy home, symbolizing a parent's dedication to a child's emotional world.

This touching story emphasizes the importance of being present and playful with our children and is perfect for parents and children to enjoy together. "Mamá Adivina" is an endearing tale that culminates with a cozy resolution of family teamwork in tidying up - a beautiful blend of love, laughter, and life lessons.

1 ENG: What do you tend to lose most of the time? Why do you think you lose them?
 ESP: ¿Qué tiendes a perder la mayoría del tiempo? ¿Por qué crees que los pierdes?

2 ENG: How do you feel when you lose things? And how do you feel when you find them? What can you do to avoid losing your toys?
 ESP: Cómo te sientes cuando pierdes cosas? ¿Y cómo te sientes cuando las encuentras? ¿Qué puedes hacer para evitar perder tus juguetes?

3 ENG: What does Enrique do at the end of the story with the help of his mom? Why do you think that was important?
 ESP: ¿Qué hace Enrique al final de la historia con la ayuda de su mamá? ¿Por qué crees que eso fue importante?