Overview

The first version was published in London in 1934 and was so successful that the author (Helen Lyndon) successively wrote seven more sequels.

This adaptation for young children tells the story of the Banks family who are looking for a nanny to take care of their four children: Jane, Michael and the twins Barbara and John. Magically Mary Poppins appears with her flying umbrella and her wonderful bag. Together with her, the children will live unforgettable adventures that will make them love her as a dear friend.
