

Orange Jardin

Prepared by:
Curio Team

A fun and inquisitive book that takes your little one on a hunt for a special animal throughout the forest. With every turning page, they will receive clues about the animal, its diet, natural environment and habits.

With engaging questions on every page, the little reader is bound to remain interested in learning more about this special animal!

The book ends with a fun craft project with tree leaves perfect to tackle when seasons change.

You will find some more advanced words describing special species of birds or plants, which will give children an initial understanding of the diversity within nature.
