

好喜欢妈妈!

(I love my mommy)

Prepared by: Curio

好喜欢妈妈! (I love my mummy!) is a heartwarming and simple story that revolves around a child's deep affection for their mother. The child expresses their love for their mother by describing various cozy and playful moments spent with her. They express their joy and contentment by hiding in her embrace, snuggling in her lap, and even playfully pretending to be inside her mouth.

This book is great for kids because it beautifully captures the strong bond between a child and their mother. It celebrates the warmth and security that children feel when they are close to their mothers, highlighting the love and comfort that maternal relationships provide. The simple and repetitive text is perfect for young children, and the book's message of love and attachment can help children feel secure and loved. It also encourages children to express their affection for their parents, making it a wonderful read for both parents and their little ones.
